

Mineral Co, Montana

±41.32 acres • $695,000

This mountain acreage is divided into two equal parcels and borders forest service on three sides with one private owner to the south. Hilda Creek runs through both parcels with great habitat for big game and huckleberries galore. You can use this hideout as your own personal paradise to entertain or rent it out to weekend warriors. The potential is strong. The cabin is currently being remodeled and will be done shortly. New flooring, stainless appliances and kitchen cabinets. RV setup on site.

- Located 20 minutes from Lookout Ski area
- Centrally located between Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and Missoula Montana; about 90
- Additional build site
- Internal road system
- Landowner gated access
